

Elisabeth P. Mankamyer

Beth Mankamyer practices in real estate transactions and corporate law, focusing on real estate development and business formation. Beth graduated from the University of Colorado Law School in Boulder. While in school, she was President of the Construction and Real Estate Law Association, Editor in Chief of the Colorado Journal of International Environmental Law and Policy, Secretary of the Class of 2009, Event Coordinator of the Women's Law Caucus, and the recipient of the James N. Corbridge Initiative Award.

Beth is originally from Bothell, WA and enjoys skiing, traveling, reading, hiking, attending Rockies games, and spending time with her husband and their three dogs.

Practice Areas

- Real Estate Acquisitions and Dispositions
- Real Estate Loans
- Commercial Leasing
- LLC Formation
- Contract Drafting
- Mechanic's Liens

Education

- Western Washington University, B.A., cum laude., 2006
- University of Colorado Law School, J.D., 2009
- Admitted to Colorado Bar, 2009